

This is an aerial photograph of a military camp, likely during the early 20th century. The camp is situated in a valley with hills in the background. Several buildings are visible, including barracks, a mess hall, and a civil conservation camp. Roads lead out of the camp in different directions. Handwritten labels on white paper strips are placed over the photograph to identify specific locations.

Road to Daniels Canyon

Men Barracks

Recreation Barracks

Flag Pole

Officer's Barracks

Civil Conserva. Camp

Mess Hall

Road to Provo

6th South Street

Emil Kohler
Barn
Ice House
Butcher Shop

Emil Kohler
Brick Home

Heber CC Camp
1936 to 1941